DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-12 and 19-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claims contain subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventors, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The disclosure from applicant's specification at pages 6 and 7 is not supportive for the limitation "a typical amount of medicament ... to achieve a bioequivalent". Page 6, lines 12-14 disclose a method of delivering medicaments to an individual that provides for increase absorption and bioavailability. Page 7, lines 27-32 disclose an increase in the absorption of the drug is achieved as well as an increase in the bioavailability of the drug. However, nowhere in the specification discloses a method for delivering medicaments to an individual that a bioequivalent is achieved.

Applicant's attention is also called to Gudas (WO 98/23165). It is noted that Gudas includes examples that disclose the level of caffeine in the chewing gum product of about 0.1% which is less than the level of caffeine found in a conventional cup of coffee. Gudas may be applicable as a prior art as noticed by the Board.
